

Kid's Safety Day

The Portage Police Department along with other area first responders host an annual Kid's Safety Day in June. The event which provides important safety lessons also give children ages 9-14 the opportunity to interact with first responders through various games and events. This day and location will be posted on social media which will include sign up information.